Surya Heritage

Extraordinarily Beautiful

The Surya Heritage is located in the heart of Kannur town. Experience the charm of the Surya Heritage, a heaven for those seeking a peaceful atmosphere between nature, good food and beauty. The tranquil ambience of the Surya Heritage Hotel and more than 10-decade old building of this heritage is maintained in accordance with the Kerala style of architecture which has history of its own and a unique charm that takes you back in time.

History

Adorned with Traditional Kerala Architecture

Many years before India gained independence Mr. Chenoli Therathu Balakrishnan, built the House in the most modern style of the time. The old generation still remembers that when the beloved Pandit Jawaharlal Nehru visited Kannur, he rested in this house and shared his friendship with his family. Sri. Therathu Balakrishnan was a former Congress activist and businessman who was very friendly with the King of Mysore. The King of Mysore accepted his invitation and visited this Tharavadu as a guest with his family and participated in the hospitality.
